Date: 26 May 2016

Item No: 9

Subject Standards Committees, Investigations, Dispensations and Referral (Wales) (Amendment) Regulations 2016

Purpose To advise Standards Committee of the changes introduced by the Local Government (Standards Committees, Investigations, Dispensations and Referral) (Wales) (Amendment) Regulations 2016

Author Head of Law and Regulation

Ward General

Summary The Local Government (Standards Committees, Investigations, Dispensations and Referral) (Wales) (Amendment) Regulations 2016 were made by the (then) Minister for Public Services on 27th January 2016 and came into force on 1st April 2016. The Regulations make a number of consequential amendments to reflect changes in legislation which allow for the establishment of joint Standards Committees. The Regulations provide for the referral of misconduct cases and dispensation application to other councils standards committees, where appropriate, and extend the current term of office of elected members until May 2017. Other procedural changes will require prior permission to appeal to the Adjudication Panel, to filter out spurious appeals, enable misconduct reports and documents to be kept confidential until proceedings are concluded, and introduce a general ground for granting dispensations.

Background

1. The Local Government (Standards Committees, Investigations, Dispensations and Referral) (Wales) (Amendment) Regulations 2016 were made by the (then) Minister for Public Services on 27th January 2016 and came into force on 1st April 2016. The Regulations amend the following existing statutory instruments:

- Standards Committees (Wales) Regulations 2001 (SI 2001 / 2283)
- Local Government Investigations (Functions of Monitoring Officers and Standards Committees) (Wales) Regulations 2001 (SI 2001 / 2281)
- Standards Committees (Grant of Dispensations) (Wales) Regulations 2001 (SI 2001 / 2279)

2. The Standards Committees (Wales) Regulations 2001

A number of consequential amendments have been made to the Standards Committee Regulations following the commencement of the Local Government (Democracy) (Wales) Act 2013 ("the 2013 Act").

(a) Joint Standards Committees.

- Section 68 of the 2013 Act enabled two or more principal councils to establish Joint Standards Committees. The arrangements for establishing a joint committee, including the apportionment of costs, are a matter for agreement between the authorities entering into such arrangements. The 2001 Standards Committees Regulations (as amended) make provision as to the size and composition of standards committees and matters relating to the conduct of meetings, including public access to meetings, agendas and papers etc.
- A number of minor consequential amendments are made to the interpretation and other provisions to clarify the meaning of terms used, and the application of provisions, in the 2001 Standards Committees Regulations in relation to a joint committee. This includes expanding the definition of a standards committee to include a joint committee.
- The 2001 Standards Committees Regulations provide that a standards committee must consist of between 5 and 9 members of which at least half, including the chairperson, must be independent of the authority. The amendments do not increase the number of members for the purposes of establishing a joint committee and it will be a matter for the constituent authorities to determine the number, and proportion from each authority, of elected members to be appointed to a joint committee.
- The 2001 Standards Committees Regulations provide that a standards committee of a local authority operating executive arrangements may not include more than one member of the authority's executive. The amendments provide that a joint committee may include no more than one executive member from each constituent authority.
- The Standards Committees Amendment Regulations amend Regulation 10 so that in the case of a joint committee, a designated local authority may exercise the function of appointing a community committee member. Before making such an appointment, the authority concerned must consult community councils and any associations operating within the combined area of the constituent authorities of the joint committee.
- The Regulations are amended to provide express provision for a lead authority to be designated for the purpose of re-appointing members to a joint committee.

- The monitoring officer, or a representative, of one of the constituent authorities must attend every meeting and the proper office of one of the authorities will be responsible for taking minutes of the joint meetings.. This will provide flexibility for the authorities to determine attendance between them.
- The 2001 Standards Committees Regulations require every relevant authority to prepare the terms of reference of its standards committee and to send a copy of these to the Ombudsman. In the case of a joint committee, this will be the responsibility of the designated lead authority specified in the arrangements for establishing the committee

(b) Term of Office

The term of office of a member of a local authority or a community committee member serving on a standards committee is currently limited to the shorter of four years or the period to the next ordinary election following that member's appointment. A member may serve two such terms. Following the postponement of the next local government elections until May 2017, the 2001 Regulations are amended to permit local authority and community council members of Standards Committee to continue to serve until the next ordinary election May 2017.

Further amendments are made to remove the four year restriction on a Member's term of office. In future, the term of office of local authority and community committee members is to be such as the authority determines, up to the period ending with the next ordinary elections following the member's appointment.

(c) Publication of Misconduct Reports

It is expected that a Standards Committee would normally hear evidence and submissions in relation to an alleged breach of the Code of Conduct in public. Among other things, this recognises a member's right under Article 6 of the European Convention on Human Rights to a fair and public hearing. However, the legislative framework recognises there may be circumstances in which it is appropriate for a standards committee to consider matters in private, including when deliberating the evidence and submissions it has received prior to making a determination.

The 2001 Standards Committees Regulations apply, with modification, certain provisions of Part VA and schedule 12A of the Local Government Act 1972 (access to meetings etc.) to a standards committee. These, and related provisions in other subordinate legislation, have been interpreted by some standards committees as requiring the report of a misconduct investigation to be published in advance of a standards committee meeting at which the matter is to be considered, along with the agenda and other papers for that meeting. This has given rise both to unhelpful advance publicity in the media, and the potential for witness evidence that is to be given orally at a hearing to be influenced by prior knowledge of the contents of the report, such as the written statements of other witnesses.

Therefore, the Standards Committees Amendment Regulations expressly provide that standards committee may exempt from publication agendas, records or information connected to the consideration of a misconduct report, until such time as the misconduct proceedings are concluded, that is when any time limit for appealing to the Adjudication Panel has expired or any such adjudication has been completed.

3. The Local Government Investigations (Functions of Monitoring Officers and Standards Committees) (Wales) Regulations 2001

- (a) Section 69 of the 2013 Act amended the regulation-making power in section 73 of the 2000 Act, with effect from 1 May 2015, so that the Welsh Ministers may make provision enabling a monitoring officer or a standards committee to refer a report or recommendations relating to a misconduct investigation to another authority's standards committee. This enables arrangements to be made where the "home standards committee" considers that it may have a conflict of interest. The terms of any referral are to be a matter for agreement between the relevant authorities concerned. The 2001 Functions Regulations are now amended to provide that:
- A standards committee which receives a report or recommendations from a monitoring officer may make arrangements with another authority's standards committee to exercise its functions under the 2001 Functions Regulations in relation to that report or recommendations.
 - Notice of such a referral must be given to the complainant and the Ombudsman, specifying the reason for the referral.
 - Written notice of the determination must also be given to Standards Committee who referred the matter and the monitoring officer of the member's home authority.
 - Publication of the report is by the monitoring officer of the member's home authority

(b) Period of Suspension

Standards Committee may determine that a member who has failed to comply with the authority's Code of Conduct should be suspended or partially suspended for a period not exceeding six months. The Regulation does not make express provision for situations where a local election is due to take place within six months of such a determination. The Regulations are now amended to make it clear that a period of suspension cannot exceed the remainder of a member's term of office, to bring this into line with the provisions relating to the Adjudication Panel.

(c) Appeals to the Adjudication Panel

A member seeking to appeal against the determination of a Standards Committee will, in future, first need to obtain the permission of the President (or another nominated member) of the Adjudication Panel for Wales. The requirement to obtain permission to appeal is intended to ensure that only appeals that have a reasonable prospect of success (in whole or in part) will proceed. A member will have no right to challenge, or indeed seek to delay implementation of, a sanction imposed by a standards committee on entirely frivolous or spurious grounds.

4. Local Authorities (Grant of Dispensations) (Wales) Regulations 2001 (the "2001 Dispensations Regulations")

- (a) The amendments enable a standards committee to refer a dispensation application to another council's standards committee, for example if have a conflict of interest or where they are unable to deal with an urgent application due to the unavailability of members. The terms of any referral are to be a matter for agreement between the relevant authorities concerned. The written consent of the Chair (or Vice –Chair if the Chair is unavailable) must be given to the Monitoring Officer before such a referral can be made.

Notice of such a referral must be given to the member requesting the dispensation, specifying the reason for the referral.

- (b) A general category of dispensation is introduced, to bring the Regulations into line with Section 33 of the Localism Act 2011 in England. The specific intention of this amendment is to enable standards committee to grant a dispensation, if it considered it appropriate in all the circumstances to do so, where it was not otherwise possible to make reasonable adjustments to accommodate a member's disability. A dispensation under this category is subject to ongoing annual review. For example, a disabled member may have difficulty in physically withdrawing from the room if there are no adjustments to the venue or the agenda that could facilitate this. But the general has much wider application than this and could potentially be utilised by a standards committee where a member seeks a dispensation in circumstances which are not covered by one of the specific dispensation categories in the Regulations. However, Welsh Government have advised caution in using this power more widely and standards committee would need to consider the potential risk of external challenge to a decision taken by the authority in which that member had participated in reliance upon that dispensation.

detailling the procedure for appealing against the decision of a standards committee.

Regulation 4 amends the Dispensations Regulations to provide a procedure for a member's application for a dispensation to be referred to the standards committee of another authority for determination.

The detailed provisions are as follows—

Regulation 2

Joint Standards Committees

Part III of the Local Government Act 2000 ("the 2000 Act") makes provision with respect to the conduct of local authority members and employees.

Section 53(1) of the 2000 Act requires every relevant authority in Wales, that is, county and county borough councils, fire and rescue authorities and National Park authorities, but not for this purpose, community councils, to establish a standards committee which is to have the functions conferred on it by or under Part III of the 2000 Act.

The Local Government (Democracy) (Wales) Act 2013 ("the 2013 Act") amended section 53(1) of the 2000 Act to enable two or more relevant authorities to establish a joint standards committee.

In accordance with section 53(11) of the 2000 Act, the Welsh Ministers may by regulations make provision as to (among other things) the size, composition and proceedings of standards committees of relevant authorities in Wales including joint committees, and any sub-committees established under sections 54A or 56 of the 2000 Act.

Regulation 2 amends the Standard Committees Regulations to facilitate the operation of joint standards committees. It makes provision for the appointment of community committee and independent members to a joint standards committee; it limits the number of executive members of a joint standards committee; and it makes provision ensuring that every meeting of a joint standards committee is attended by a monitoring officer of one of the constituent relevant authorities. In accordance with the amendments in regulation 2 the functions of a standards committee within regulations 13 to 17 of the Gwneir darpariaeth o fewn rheoliad 2 hefyd sy'n diwygio hyd cyfnod swydd aelodau o bwyllgorau safonau.

Cyhoeddi Adroddiadau Camymddygiad

Mae adran 51(1) o Ddeddf 2000 yn gosod dyletswydd ar yr holl awdurdodau perthnasol yng Nghymru i fabwysiadu cod sy'n pennu'r safonau ymddygiad a ddisgwylir gan eu haelodau a'u haelodau cyfetholedig.

O dan adran 69 o Ddeddf 2000 caiff Ombudsmon Gwasanaethau Cyhoeddus Cymru ymchwilio i unrhyw honiadau bod aelodau neu aelodau cyfetholedig (neu gyn aelodau neu gyn aelodau cyfetholedig) wedi torri cod ymddygiad awdurdod perthnasol yng Nghymru.

Pan fo Ombudsmon Gwasanaethau Cyhoeddus Cymru yn rhoi'r gorau i ymchwiliad o'r fath cyn iddo gael ei gwblhau (o dan adran 70(4) o Ddeddf 2000) caniateir atgyfeirio'r mater sy'n destun yr ymchwiliad i swyddog monitro yr awdurdod perthnasol.

Neu fel arall, pan fo Ombudsmon Gwasanaethau Cyhoeddus Cymru yn dyfarnu (o dan adran 71(2) o Ddeddf 2000) ei bod yn briodol i'r mater gael ei atgyfeirio i swyddog monitro yr awdurdod perthnasol, rhaid i'r Ombudsmon lunio adroddiad ar ganlyniad yr ymchwiliad a'i anfon at y swyddog monitro ac at bwyllgor safonau yr awdurdod.

Mae rheoliad 2 yn gwneud darpariaeth i eithrio pwyllgor neu is-bwyllgor safonau rhag trefnu bod adroddiad neu argymhellion camymddygiad ar gael i'r cyhoedd edrych arnynt hyd nes y bydd trafodion camymddygiad o dan y Rheoliadau Swyddogaethau wedi dod i ben. Mae'r rheoliad hefyd yn nodi'r digwyddiadau a fydd yn dynodi diwedd y trafodion ac yn sbarduno'r rhwymedigaeth i gyhoeddi'r deunyddiau cyn gynted ag y bo'n rhesymol ymarferol.

Rheoliad 3

Mae adran 73 o Ddeddf 2000 yn galluogi Gweinidogion Cymru i wneud rheoliadau sy'n pennu sut i ymdrin â materion a atgyfeirir at swyddog monitro a phwyllgor safonau. Mae'r Rheoliadau Swyddogaethau yn nodi cyfrifoldebau'r swyddog monitro a'r pwyllgor safonau mewn perthynas ag ymchwiliad, llunio adroddiad a chanlyniad ymchwiliad.

Standards Committee Regulations may, in the case of a joint standards committee, be discharged by any one of the constituent relevant authorities of a joint standards committee.

Provision is also made within regulation 2 amending the length of the term of office of members of standards committees.

Publication of Misconduct Reports

Section 51(1) of the 2000 Act imposes a duty upon all relevant authorities in Wales to adopt a code specifying the standards of conduct expected of their members and co-opted members.

Under section 69 of the 2000 Act the Public Services Ombudsman for Wales may investigate any alleged breach by members or co-opted members (or former members or co-opted members) of the code of conduct of a relevant authority in Wales.

Where the Public Services Ombudsman for Wales ceases such an investigation before it is completed (under section 70(4) of the 2000 Act) the matter subject to the investigation may be referred to the monitoring officer of the relevant authority.

Alternatively, where the Public Services Ombudsman for Wales determines (under section 71(2) of the 2000 Act) that it is appropriate for the matter to be referred to the monitoring officer of the relevant authority, the Ombudsman must produce a report on the outcome of the investigation and send it to the monitoring officer and the authority's standards committee.

Regulation 2 makes provision to exempt a standards committee or sub-committee from making a misconduct report or recommendations available for public inspection until misconduct proceedings under the Functions Regulations are concluded. The regulation also sets out the events that will signify the end of the proceedings and which give rise to the obligation to publish the materials as soon as reasonably practicable.

Regulation 3

Section 73 of the 2000 Act enables the Welsh Ministers to make regulations specifying how matters referred to a monitoring officer and standards committee are to be dealt with. The Functions Regulations set out the responsibilities of the monitoring officer and the standards committee in relation to an investigation, the production of a report and the outcome of an investigation.

Diwygiodd adran 69 o Ddeddf 2013 y pŵer i wneud rheoliadau yn adran 73 o Ddeddf 2000 er mwyn caniatâu i Weinidogion Cymru wneud darpariaeth sy'n galluogi swyddog monitro neu bwylgor safonau i atgyfeirio adroddiad neu argymhellion sy'n ymwneud ag ymchwiliad camymddygiad i bwylgor safonau awdurdod perthnasol arall. Mae rheoliad 3 yn diwygio'r Rheoliadau Swyddogaethau er mwyn nodi'r weithdrefn sydd i'w dilyn wrth wneud atgyfeiriad o'r fath.

Mewn perthynas â hawl aelod i apelio yn erbyn penderfyniad pwylgor safonau, mae rheoliad 3 yn darparu na all apêl fynd yn ei blaen oni bai bod llywydd Panel Dyfarnu Cymru, neu enwebai, wedi rhoi caniatâd i'r apêl fynd yn ei blaen yn gyntaf. Nodir y weithdrefn a'r amserlen sy'n gymwys i gais am ganiatâd i apelio o fewn y rheoliad hefyd.

Mae rheoliad 4 yn diwygio'r Rheoliadau Gollyngiadau fel y gall cais am ollyniad gan aelod gael ei atgyfeirio i bwylgor safonau awdurdod perthnasol arall iddo ddifyarnu arno. Mae'r rheoliad hefyd yn gwneud darpariaeth ar gyfer categori ychwanegol o ollyniad cyffredinol.

Ystyriwyd Cod Ymarfer Gweinidogion Cymru ar gynnal Asesiadau Effaith Rheoleiddiol mewn perthynas â'r Rheoliadau hyn. O ganlyniad, lluniwyd asesiad effaith rheoleiddiol o'r costau a'r manteision sy'n debygol o ddeillio o gydymffurfio â'r Rheoliadau hyn. Gellir cael copi oddi wrth: Yr Is-adran Democratiaeth Llywodraeth Leol, Llywodraeth Cymru, Parc Cathays, Caerdydd, CF10 3NQ.

Section 69 of the 2013 Act amended the regulation-making power in section 73 of the 2000 Act so as to allow the Welsh Ministers to make provision enabling a monitoring officer or a standards committee to refer a report or recommendations relating to a misconduct investigation to the standards committee of another relevant authority. Regulation 3 amends the Functions Regulations to set out the procedure to be followed when making such a referral.

In relation to the right of a member to appeal against the decision of a standards committee, regulation 3 provides that an appeal may only proceed if the president of the Adjudication Panel for Wales, or a nominee, has first granted permission for the appeal to proceed. The procedure and timescales that apply to an application for permission to appeal are also set out in within the regulation.

Regulation 4

Regulation 4 amends the Dispensations Regulations so an application by a member for a dispensation can be referred to the standards committee of another relevant authority for determination. The regulation also makes provision for an additional category of general dispensation.

The Welsh Ministers' Code of Practice on the carrying out of Regulatory Impact Assessments was considered in relation to these Regulations. As a result, a regulatory impact assessment has been prepared as to the likely costs and benefits of complying with these Regulations. A copy can be obtained from the Local Government Democracy Division, Welsh Government, Cathays Park, Cardiff, CF10 3NQ.
